

OBC NEWSLETTER

The Presidential Pint

Lisa Hinson

If you regularly read your newsletter (which I certainly hope you do!), you will be likely to spot a theme in a lot of what you read. Our newsletter is always chock-full of ways to get involved in the club, and something you will consistently hear from me is encouragement and invitation to find ways to engage and give back. I want to be clear, that this is not from a place of assuming that any of us has an abundance of free time for which we are dying to find a use! No, a majority of folks are quite busy, so involvement is intentional, and I want to honor that! I also know that, my experience tells me that, like most things in life, the quality of your experience depends on what you put in to it! That said... you'll read a lot in this issue about how to get involved!

Two things I want to highlight are related to the upcoming competition season. You'll find a comprehensive list on the competition calendar, but there are two that I would like to take the opportunity to draw attention to more specifically:

The 3rd Annual SheBrew competition is happening Saturday, February 23rd. This competition has become the largest All Female-Identified Homebrew Competition in the country and being a part of it is an absolute blast! Anyone who wants to volunteer to help with the comp can visit shebrew.oregonbrewcrew.org and even if you can't volunteer, you're welcome to join us at 5pm on 2/23 at Portland Cider Company for awards and raffle!

The second competition I want to highlight is the First Round of Judging for National Homebrew Competition happening March 29-30th at Bosk Brewing in Woodinville, Washington. The idea is that it will rotate between the Seattle and Portland areas each year. This means next year it'll be back to us! We are hoping to have a contingent of OBCers who will be able to make the trip up to judge, and we are currently working on ways to help support that effort. We know that we will be the ones asking for help from the Seattle area next year, so we're hoping for a good showing! Stay tuned!

In gearing up for the SheBrew competition (2/23) and festival (3/2) we will be having February's meeting on Tuesday, February 12th at 7pm at Base Camp Brewing which is home to one of the brewers featured at the SheBrew festival on Saturday 3/2. Lauren Yap will be on hand to talk about her beer and give tours (available to the first 30 people to sign-up at the meeting). At the meeting two lucky winners will be able to take home some Base Camp wort to raise up into a tasty brew (that they may choose to bring to March or April's in-meeting?... just a thought).

And remember:

A fine beer may be judged with only one sip, but it's better to be thoroughly sure. - Czech Proverb

Cheers,
Lisa Hinson

SheBrew time is here!

Oregon Brew Crew's first competition of the year is the 3rd annual SheBrew! This one is for female-identifying brewers and includes all BJCP styles. Judging will take place 2/23 at Portland Cider Company. Entries are $8 each and due 2/15. Registration is open! We will need judges and stewards (everyone is welcome!), so please consider judging or stewarding whether or not you are entering. See the website for drop-off locations.

Competition Calendar

Competition Committee Chair – Eric Hinson

KLCC Brewfest Homebrew Competition- Awards will be announced at the KLCC Microbrewfest on 2/9. This is the first OSHBOTY qualifier of the year!

PBC Stout Bout- The 6th annual battle of the stouts. The people's choice pouring as well as awards and raffle is on 2/9 at Baerlic. New for this year, this is an OSHBOTY qualifier.

JBLM Homebrew Competition- DuPont, WA. Register starting Jan 1st, judging takes place on 2/23. Registration and entry deadline 2/18. Bader's in Vancouver is the closest drop off point.

SheBrew- Our 3rd annual competition, the largest female-identified homebrew competition in the U.S.! Visit the website to register entries or sign up to judge or steward. Entry is limited to female-identified brewers however judging and stewarding is open to all. Judging will take place 2/23 at Portland Cider Company. There will be a great raffle as well! The following weekend, 3/2 will be the SheBrew Festival which will include 30+ beers brewed by professional female brewers and a People's Choice pouring of homebrews.

Cascade Brewer's Cup- Seattle, WA. Registration is open now for entries and judges - here. Entry deadline is 3/4/19, judging 3/8 and 3/9. Entry drop off locations are still TBD.

Washington Mead & Cider Cup- Snohomish, WA. Register between 2/8 and 2/22 for the competition on 3/9.

Krausen Cup- After a successful 1st year, Imperial Yeast is bringing back the Krausen Cup for a second round on 3/9. Note the date change, this has been moved up after being in May last year. Registration is open now here. Entry is only $5, and you might remember some pretty sweet prizes last year. Registration deadline 2/15, entry drop off deadline 2/26. This is an OSHBOTY qualifier.

Mazer Cup- Broomfield, CA. Mead only competition on 3/16. Information for 2019 will be here.

NHC First Round – Seattle, WA (and other locations). Entry confirmations will be sent out no later than 2/15, at which point you have 7 days to pay your fees and confirm your entries. Shipping window 3/1 to 3/14. Seattle Regional Judging will be at Bosk Beer Works in Woodinville on 3/29 and 3/30. More information can be found at the NHC Seattle Facebook page HERE. Information about drop off locations and shipping will be updated as it's announced. NHC Regional and Final competitions are OSHBOTY qualified.

Abbey Bar 5th Anniversary Homebrew Comp – Portland, OR. The Abbey Bar's Anniversary Homebrew Competition. Open to all Belgian styles. Two 22oz bottles, or 4, 12oz bottles should be dropped off at the Abbey Bar no later than Friday, March 8. Panel judging and people choice judging will take place on Saturday March 9. *Notice – Unlike other competitions, for this one they DO want you to tape your contact info on the bottles so it doesn't come off. More information is available at the website HERE.

Competition Committee – Running competitions requires a dedicated team. If you are interested in serving as Head Steward, Judge Coordinator or simply helping plan for either Heart of Cascadia and/or Fall Classic, please contact me at Eric.Hinson@oregonbrewcrew.org. Heart of Cascadia is typically in May, Fall Classic is typically in late October, early November. The goal will be to hold several planning meetings before each event. If you can't make it to each meeting that's fine! If you can help plan beforehand, but can't be there day of, that's fine! It takes a village. Serving on a committee will also fulfill your volunteer requirement as an OBC member and earn you Member of the Year Karma points!

Cheers!

Education Corner

Education Chair Tracy Hensley

March In Meeting: The March 14th In Meeting's educational topic will be presented by Pat Leavy, Owner/Hop Grower of The Oregon Hophouse. As March kicks off the hop growing season, Pat will be talking about growing hops with some comments about organic hop farming techniques. For those interested in growing your own hops, Steinbarts anticipates hop rhizomes being in stock in time for our meeting. A special thanks goes out to OBC member Sean Sanders for proposing and organizing this presentation.

BJCP Class: OBC members Alex Parise and Scott Nieradka are hard at work developing this year's Beer Judge Certification Program (BJCP) Class.

BJCP Exams: The PDX BJCP Judging (tasting) Exam being held on Sunday, May 19th 2019 is currently accepting registration for the wait-list. Will keep you posted if additional exams are scheduled due to a high level of interest. The BJCP Written Exam will be held on Saturday, May 11th, 2019. For more information and to register: <https://sites.google.com/view/pdxbjcpexams>

Get Involved! Reach out to me with your ideas, questions, or if you want to get involved: education@oregonbrewcrew.org

Events Corner
Events Coordination Chair – Michele Lish
Volunteerism – It's what OBC really stands for!

I am so thrilled to be a part of the OBC board this year in the position of Event Coordinator Chair and hope to get to know many more members of the club as you participate in our events. OBC has made a commitment to participate in a few annual events that in turn generate funds and/or exposure for the club. We provide servers at the Nano Brew, which is April 26 - 28, 2019, and the Portland Craft Beer Festival (PCBF), which is July 4 - 6, 2019. These are the big events that generate funds for OBC. We have a booth at the Oregon Beer Festival (OBF) on July 24 - 27, 2019, and we like to have a demonstration using our pilot system to brew a beer at least one day of this 4-day festival. The brewing demo draws a lot of people to our booth and has generated lots of new members. There are many other events where OBC members help out, and I will have a monthly article in this newsletter so you can add the dates to your calendars, but just a few are: Boring Beer Festival at the end of August, Fresh Hop Fest at the end of September, and the Oregon State Fair Homebrew Competition. At these events we help with sorting the bottles, setting up, judging, stewarding, and of course serving at festivals. For most, you do not need any special qualifications or certifications to help out. You just need to sign up, show up, and get free stuff (beer tickets for free samples, t-shirts, and swag are a few of the fun things). Many do it for the free beer, and if that is your thing, be sure to participate in the last shift of the event to get your growler(s) filled.

Part of being a member of OBC is volunteerism. OBC is a non-profit organization and one guideline for such an organization is to give back to the community. Staffing a shift at one of these events is one way to give back to the community, and it also results in giving back to the club. Your membership fees are kept low because we receive donations from the two events. At one time we also received donations for our participation in the Spring Beer and Wine Festival, but that event is no longer happening after a good 23-year run.

Collaborator Program Continues with Changes

Noel Blake

Can you answer these Oregon Brew Crew trivia questions?

What Portland brewery sponsors the Collaborator program?

Answer: Widmer

In what year was the first Collaborator beer released?

Answer: 1998

What was the first Collaborator beer?

Answer: read on, the answer is below

Pecking numbers into your smartphone, you quickly calculate that the Collaborator program is now old enough to legally order a beer. For the 21st birthday of this program, we are making changes to bring us back to the origins of the competition:

- Best of Show format: there will be only one winner selected.
- One entry limit: each brewer or co-brewer is allowed only one entry.
- Smaller batch size: Widmer will brew the winner's beer in one or more 5 barrel batches.

What stays the same?

- Open styles: no BJCP judging guidelines used
- Only current OBC members are eligible to enter
- Widmer pays for ingredients up to five gallons
- Must provide the full recipe of the beer entered

What should you enter?

Widmer has specifically challenged the Oregon Brew Crew to come up with "one memorable beer." This takes us back to our roots when Collaborator Milk Stout was released to local pubs as our inaugural beer. Winner take all, memorable beer. Check, and check. If any homebrewers can do as well, you OBC brewers can.

And now, the fine print ...

What do you get if you win?

Widmer will produce your beer recipe. You will participate in planning and executing the beer, from recipe consultation to attending the brewing session to finishing the brew. You may also get to participate in repping the brew to local pubs and organizing your release party. Or, your beer may be placed in a festival, which might include some P.R. work on your part. You will also receive the coveted Collaborator jacket embroidered with your name (limit: one per winning entry). For each barrel sold, Widmer will make a donation to the Oregon Brew Crew Bob McCracken scholarship fund at Oregon State University's fermentation sciences program.

Competition Dates:

The competition is taking place on June 5th. Entries should be dropped off at Steinbart's by Fri. May 31st. Late entries will be accepted on Sat. June 1st if they are dropped off at Steinbart's by 11:00. Winners will be announced by the following OBC meeting.

Eligibility and Entry Limitations:

All current Oregon Brew Crew members are eligible. Each member may submit only one entry as brewer or co-brewer. Entries must be brewed on a home brewing system, including the OBC pilot system. Entries brewed in a professional brewing facility (brewpub, you-brew) are not allowed. (If Yoda met Spock, who would own the other?) OBC members working in a professional brewing facility are welcome to enter as long as the beer is a homebrew.

Widmer will pay for the ingredients for one five-gallon batch of beer per entry under the following conditions. The ingredients must be purchased at Steinbart's and direct-charged to Widmer's account upon presentation of your current Oregon Brew Crew membership card. There will be no reimbursement from receipts.

Entry Packaging:

We need a minimum of two 33cl or 12 oz. (or larger) bottles for the competition, one for the preliminary round and one for the best of show round. You may substitute one 22 oz. or larger bottle, however that is not recommended because you will not have a fresh bottle for the best of show round. We also need two more bottles for a lab analysis at Widmer that is mandatory should your beer be selected. (Jedi powers do not work on Vulcans) Widmer cannot brew the beer without the lab. If you submit four bottles at entry time, you will receive a complementary lab analysis from Widmer even if you do not win. This is an optional, free benefit to Collaborator participants.

All entries must be packaged in competition-ready bottles as required by any other OBC-sponsored competitions. A paper containing the following entry information should be affixed with rubber bands with the following information: Name of brewer(s) from online entry, mobile number, and complete beer recipe (if not entered on-line).

Entry Information:

Entry registration will be on-line at <http://collaborator.oregonbrewcrew.org/>

The following information is required:

- Recipe information, including both ingredients and techniques.
- Name of brewer(s) and contact information (mobile phone number preferred).
- Name of beer.
- Description. This is what we will be judging the beer against. You may reference a known beer style. Keep it brief. Examples: "hoppy gin barrel hazy strong lager", "Imperial Session IPA", "Apple Pie Saison"

Judging:

Beers are evaluated without reference to BJCP style guidelines. The winner will be a memorable beer. The judging will be held at Widmer and be performed by a diverse group of brewing industry professionals, beer writers, and BJCP judges.

Burgermeister News

Torri Hansmann

Hey everyone, this months' meeting is an out meeting. February 12th (because that Thursday is Valentine's Day) at Basecamp. We will have chips and salsa and dumplings and salad from the food carts. The Mexican food cart will be open if you would like to buy more food for yourselves. The other two food carts are closed on Tuesdays, though the Nepalese truck guys said they will come in to set us up with their dumplings on their day off, how great are they?

I wanna say thank you to everyone who brought food to last months' meeting. You guys are awesome, we had so much food! Thank you for making my first month as your new Burgermeister a success!

Challenge Coins!

The OBC still has a challenge coin for sale. The cost to members is just $8, and to non-members is $10. When this limited edition is gone, the intent is to make a different design.

A special thank you to Michele Lish; she paid for the challenge coins herself and is only reimbursed by the purchase of the coins. How many free beers will you win this year?!

Don't forget the OBC Pilot System!

Fabulous upgrades to the Pilot System!

Last year, we decided to spend the full pilot system budget on much needed upgrades and improvements. A Brobdingnagian thank you to Brian Haslip for ordering the parts and assembling/transfiguring the system! Great job!

Some of the improvements include:

- Added a 2nd, better pump on a new stand
- Improved the existing pump
- Added switches to both pumps
- Replaced all of the hoses
- Added a sparge arm
- Replaced the thermometers with a digital one
- Added a 3rd burner high BTU (Blichmann stand donated by Jim Thompson), that thing is a massive improvement!

Future improvements will include:

- Replacing the other burners with high BTU
- Etching of the interior of the keggles
- Possible new keggles to expand the system
- Others? Your suggestions requested!

In addition to the amazing upgrades and improvements, we are also improving the sign-out process.

There are new forms to complete that will allow you to request specific parts instead of the entire thing. This will enable multiple members to utilize the system simultaneously. Look for the new sign-out form online in 2019 to reflect these changes.

Any questions? Send them to jim.thompson@oregonbrewcrew.org

Happy brewing!
